

Preview: Amsco, Chapter 28

Key Terms and People: New Frontier, John Kenneth Galbraith, Bay of Pigs, Cuban Missile Crisis, Flexible Response, Lyndon Johnson, “War on Poverty”, Great Society, Medicare, Medicaid, Civil Rights Act of 1964, Voting Rights Act of 1965, 24th Amendment, Ralph Nader, Martin Luther King Jr., March on Washington, Black Muslims, Malcolm X, “Black Power”, Warren Court, Mapp v. Ohio, Gideon v. Wainwright, Miranda v. Arizona, Baker v. Carr, Engel v. Vitale, “New Left”, Students for a Democratic Society, Betty Friedan, NOW, ERA, Vietnam War, Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, Tet Offensive, George Wallace, Election of 1968, Richard Nixon

1. How was LBJ’s Great Society similar to the New Deal? How was it different?
2. What tactics were used by the Civil Rights activists during the 1960’s? To what extent were they successful in bringing about change?
3. What were the goals and tactics Black Nationalists? How did they differ from the goals and tactics of MLK?
4. How would you characterize the decisions of the Warren Court? Why do they still continue to be controversial?
5. What were the goals of Women’s Rights reformers during the 1960’s and early 70’s? To what extent did they achieve their goals?
6. Explain why LBJ chose to escalate U.S. involvement in Vietnam.
7. What impact did the Tet Offensive have on the war?
8. Why is 1968 considered a turning point with regard to the following:
  - Civil Rights Movement
  - American Politics
  - Vietnam War